Can You Help a Child In Need this Christmas?

Rendlesham Parish Council are once again taking part in Operation Christmas Child, the world's largest children's Christmas project, run by the Christian relief and development organisation Samaritan's Purse.

Operation Christmas Child works by filling an empty shoebox (available at the Parish Council office) with gifts for children in need around the world and then wrapping it and taking it to your local drop off point (St Felix Church, Rendlesham, Rendlesham Primary School or Eyke Primary School). It is then collected and hand delivered to a child in need by the Samaritan's Purse, asking nothing from them in return.

All shoeboxes are given to children in need, with no regard to their background or beliefs. The Samaritan's Purse work with local partners on the ground to ensure that your gift-filled shoebox is delivered with integrity and with respect to the local culture.

Where culturally appropriate, booklet of Bible stories will be made available, which gives a message of hope and an explanation of the true meaning of Christmas.

We would really love the community of Rendlesham to get involved by joining the Operation Christmas Child campaign this year and bring a smile to the face of a child through a shoebox bursting with joy. Getting involved is as easy as 1-2-3 – everything you need to know is on the attached leaflet and once your shoebox is ready you can drop it off at St Felix Church, Walnut Tree Avenue or either Rendlesham or Eyke Primary School reception.

The closing date for boxes to be dropped off is Sunday, 17th November 2019

Should you have any queries or require any further information, please do not hesitate to contact us at the Parish Office admin@rendleshampc.org.uk

Period Poverty

The Parish Council and the Rendlesham Youth Group are taking part in the Period Poverty Scheme. The aim is to support young women throughout their periods by providing boxes filled with free sanitary products. It comes after national investigations showed some girls were forced to miss school because they can not afford sanitary protection.

Free sanitary products are available from the Youth Group on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights and will also be available in the disabled toilet in the Community Centre, just look for the heart symbol..

The Pitstop Out of School Club in Hall Farm Road, Melton are also taking part in the scheme.

The scheme has been funded by Cllr Ray Herring and other councillors at East Suffolk Council.

For more details or if you know of a suitable venue for a Period Poverty box please contact the Parish Clerk for more details.

Climate Emergency Working Group

A very successful first meeting was held in October with some very positive outcomes. With representatives from Wickham Market, Melton and Rendlesham it proved to be an excellent opportunity for sharing ideas on how to tackle climate change.

There were several topics coming forward:

Transport—the loss of the bus service to Rendlesham. The Parish Council will be working with Martlesham and Woodbridge Town Council on this matter and will be meeting with First Buses at the end of the month.

Tree Planting—It was agreed to actively seek locations for tree planting within the village.

Energy—the use of energy from renewable sources would be investigated along with the potential of having a local energy producing scheme.

Environmentally friendly businesses—the group will work with local businesses to see if there were possibilities of better ways of working.

Recycling—To increase recycling facilities in Rendlesham, particularly focussing on items which cannot be taken in the roadside collection.

Air Quality—in particular by the school where parents dropping off/picking up leave engines running. Monitoring equipment has been sourced to create a baseline. The group will be working with the school to raise awareness with parents.

The next meeting of the group will be on Wednesday November 6th, 7.30pm at the Pavilion, Jubilee Park.

Everyone welcome. Tea, coffee and biscuits provided.

The Vicar's Voice

Archbishop William Temple (1882-19440) once wrote that "The church is the only institution which exists wholly for the benefit of it's non members" In todays society, never could a truer word be spoken, with the declining numbers of church attendees, especially in rural and semi rural areas, the church is in a period of serious transition. The question of how we can continue to provide services as usual for the "old faithful's of the parish" whilst endeavouring to inspire and encourage young families with fresh expressions of "doing" church, is challenging to say the least. Especially with clergy being expected to look after anything up to 8 parishes each, with the help of retired clergy, lay readers and elders.

And of course it all comes back to one important issue....money!!

"But the church has plenty of money" I hear you all cry...."look at the land and property they own, the silverware they use on Sundays, the elaborate robes the priests wear..."

"I could only give such a small amount, it wouldn't make a difference"

"I went to church once....they didn't make me very welcome, why should I give them my hard earned money!!?"

"Why should I give money for the vicar when she lives in that big house"

As a cluster of churches, we, along with the rest of the Wilford Peninsula Benefice, and all the other benefices and churches within Diocese up and down the land, have to pay a proportion of their weekly offerings and fund raising efforts to the Diocese to which they belong. This money is then used in various ways, including Clergy stipends (clergy are given an allowance, not a salary) and housing,

Training for new and future priests and ministers, Mission and outreach initiatives: eg - food banks, community welfare projects et al
Diocesan administration costs,
Maintenance of church buildings

All this before we start to pay our organists, the electric and heating bills, insurances and basically the general upkeep of our individual church buildings. AND the Church of England doesn't get any help from the Government!!!

So....can you help? Donations are vitally important to ensuring the continuing ministry and mission of our churches. And although you may consider yourself one of those "non-members" Archbishop Temple was talking off, perhaps only attending at Christmas and Easter, or perhaps for a Wedding, Christening or Funeral, the church is there for you, and we want to continue to be there when you need it.

Your donation could make such a difference. No amount is too small or too big!! Whatever the gift you give, it will be greatly appreciated, perhaps more than you can imagine. If you feel you could help, please contact Rev Mandy to ask about the Parish Giving Scheme.

Thank you, and God bless you!

Rev Mandy x

THE SALON EXPERIENCE WITHOUT THE PRICE

Climate Emergency in Rendlesham!

At the recent Rendlesham Parish Council meeting they declared a climate emergency. This is very much in keeping with the mood of the country with our national parliament, Suffolk County Council, East Suffolk District Council and Woodbridge Town Council all having done so in the last few months. We at Greener Rendlesham give our thanks to the Parish Council for taking this issue so seriously, and offer our full support regarding this declaration. The Parish Council is setting up a working group to develop this initiative. Greener Rendlesham are offering to have representatives on this group and it would be very good if other organizations and individuals would also participate. A diverse representation of our community would be ideal:

- Local organizations from scouts to churches and P.T.A.s
- Older people concerned for their children and grandchildren.
- Younger people, including those at school, who want a worthwhile future.
- Any age in between who wants to safeguard our world.

This group will be about practical actions that we as individuals and as a community can implement.

Pupils inspire district-wide period poverty scheme

Pupils at Felixstowe Academy have launched a campaign to end period poverty - inspiring Suffolk Coastal councillors to call for a similar roll-out across the District.

The Felixstowe Academy campaign, titled 'Proud, Period!' aim to support young women throughout their periods by providing boxes filled with free sanitary products. It comes after national investigations showed some girls were forced to miss school because they can not afford sanitary protection.

The idea for the campaign came from pupils Chloe Mills, Kat Walker, Katie Bridges-Burns, Megan Hobby and Jasmine Smith. With support from their Subject Leader for Health and Social Care, Mrs Couto and supply of sanitary products from Basic Life Charity, they made it a reality.

Speaking on behalf of the girls, Katie Bridges-Burns said: "Sanitary products aren't a luxury, they are a necessity, and every girl and woman should have access to them. Through 'Proud, Period!' we've helped achieve that for the girls at Felixstowe Academy. We now aim to take it further and help people in the wider community."

"I am so proud of the 6th Form Health and Social Care students who have championed 'Proud, Period!' such an important initiative. Their energy and passion to destigmatise 'that time of the month' is something that will be remembered in years to come," said Mrs Couto.

Felixstowe Academy now has six boxes with sanitary products at the school - two on every floor. The boxes include sanitary towels, tampons, wipes, tissues and information pamphlets. Toilets containing the boxes are marked with a red glitter heart on the door.

Inspired by the 'Proud, Period!' campaign, Suffolk Coastal councillors have joined together to start a scheme, titled 'Period Poverty'.

Suffolk Coastal councillors joined together and donated a total of £18,237.16 from their Enabling Communities Budget for the scheme and are challenging local businesses and organisations to get involved to help end period poverty in east Suffolk.

Speaking on behalf of the cllrs, Cllr TJ Haworth-Culf, Suffolk Coastal Cabinet Member with responsibility for Customers, Communities and Leisure, said: "We very much wanted to support the 'Proud, Period!' campaign because no girl should ever have to feel embarrassed or miss school because they can't afford sanitary products.

"The girls at Felixstowe Academy can be very proud of what they have achieved and it has really inspired us to try and tackle this issue across the District.

"Therefore, we have set up the 'Period Poverty' scheme so we can work towards ending period poverty in east Suffolk once and for all. Our goal is to see it rolled out in places such as libraries, schools, food banks and community centres.

"However, in order to make it a success, we need the support of local businesses and organisations. Not only do we need to raise awareness of the scheme, we need locations where people can donate sanitary products and also locations where we can place boxes for those who need it.

"We know that some businesses and organisations are already supporting period poverty through various national schemes and we would like to urge them to get in touch to discuss how we can work together to achieve our goals."

If you are a local business or organisation and would like to get involved in the 'Period Poverty' scheme, please contact Chloe Winlow on chloe.winlow@eastsuffolk.gov.uk

Making FIREWORKS less frightening for animals

How YOU can reduce the chances of fireworks frightening and injuring pets, livestock and wildlife

GO TO AN ADVERTISED, ORGANISED FIREWORK EVENT

Owners can prepare their animals ahead of the event and attending these organised events also reduces the overall number of fireworks that disturb animals.

IF YOU WANT TO HAVE YOUR OWN FIREWORK CELEBRATION....

PLEASE ONLY LET FIREWORKS OFF ON TRADITIONAL CELEBRATION DATES

Diwali, Bonfire Night, New Year's Eve and Chinese New Year are occasions when most people expect fireworks and plan ahead to protect their animals.

PLEASE USE LOW NOISE FIREWORKS

These may reduce the likely fear and resulting stress caused to animals.

LET YOUR NEIGHBOURS KNOW WELL IN ADVANCE

That way, they can prepare any animals they look after – including horses and livestock which may be kept nearby in fields or buildings.

NEVER SET OFF FIREWORKS NEAR LIVESTOCK

Frightened animals, especially horses, can injure themselves – it's not unusual for horses to run through fences when frightened by fireworks. Horses can't be moved easily so it is very difficult for owners to protect horses from firework noise.

FIREWORKS DISTURB WILDLIFE

Don't let fireworks off near areas known to be wildlife habitats – such as lakes with waterfowl, trees and buildings with roosting birds or bats.

BUILD ANY BONFIRE AS CLOSE AS POSSIBLE TO THE TIME OF LIGHTING

Bonfires can kill wild animals like hedgehogs so make sure hedgehogs and other wildlife are not sleeping in the pile when it is lit.

PICK UP FIREWORK DEBRIS AND LITTER AFTER IT HAS COOLED DOWN

Dispose of it safely as it can harm animals and avoid aiming fireworks over fields or other countryside where it will not be possible to retrieve fallen litter.

Consumer Corner:

Trading Standards' give the following firework advice:

Did you know you can only buy fireworks (including sparklers) from registered sellers for private use on these dates: 15 October to 10 November, 26 to 31 December, 3 days before Diwali and the Chinese New Year

Trading Standards always advise that you purchase fireworks from reputable sellers. Under NO circumstances can fireworks marked as BS7114 be sold. Only fireworks that are CE marked are now legal.

You can be fined up to £5,000 and/or imprisoned for up to 6 months for selling or using fireworks illegally. Fireworks are not allowed to be sold to under 18's, you can report places selling to underage sellers to us via 03454 040506

Fireworks are particularly dangerous to store, so if you are purchasing for a home event, delay purchasing right up until they are needed. If you store them at home, it is crucial that they are in closed, fire-resistant storage, used solely for fireworks and labelled accordingly; locked away if you have pets or children that may be able to access them.

If you buy them from a shop, the retailer must be licenced to sell fireworks; they should never be purchased from vehicles, market stalls, car boot sales or Facebook sellers.

If you suspect someone of selling fireworks without a licence, you can report it to Trading Standards via the Citizens Advice consumer helpline on 03454 04 05 06.

Dog fouling

Clearing up after pets

Responsible dog owners understand the importance of clearing up after their pets, and so they take their dog for a walk armed with a poop scoop or bag. They will dispose of the waste when they return home or use one of the Council's dog waste bins or litter bins found across the district.

There is an inconsiderate minority who fail to clean up after their dogs. The lack of a nearby bin to dispose of dog waste is not a reasonable excuse for failing to clean up dog faeces. If there is no convenient bin, you must TAKE IT HOME for proper disposal.

Dog waste in public areas is dealt with through the normal process of street cleansing and is usually removed during scheduled street cleaning. However, the Council understands that residents are concerned about dog fouling, which is why reported incidents of dog mess will be removed from roads, parks, play areas or the beach within 24 hours of receipt.

Reporting offenders

If you see a dog owner who allows his or her dog to foul our streets then you can report it to the Environmental Protection Team.

Dog fouling and the law

Where there is a persistent problem, East Suffolk Council Officers will try to identify irresponsible dog owners, and use their Public Space Protection Order powers wherever possible. East Suffolk Council has a helpful Contact us Team to report an incident.

We love our street!

Please don't let your dog poop here

A new chapter for Rendlesham Primary School

Rendlesham Primary school is about to embark on a new chapter. After 6 exciting years as the school's head teacher I am saying goodbye to Rendlesham and taking up a two year secondment with Consortium Academy Trust in a school improvement role across our trust schools. It will be extremely difficult to say goodbye to the children of Rendlesham as over the last 6 years I have supported over 500 children and very many families.

I have seen the school through substantial growth with the lovely new extension; a newly developed playground; the extension of the Nursery to full day provision; the opening of before and after school clubs as well as a recently developed mental health/well-being area in the school plus lots more exciting resources and a newly developed curriculum for our children. It has been a privilege to work with so many incredible staff and I am confident that I am leaving a strong and passionate team who have shared my vision and will continue to support the community and its children going forward.

I would like to thank all of you in the community for your contributions to school life and for the support you give the school so regularly. It has been a challenging and enjoyable role and I am confident that your new Academy Head Kevin Speirs will enjoy the post as much as I have.

My thanks again for all your support.

Kooth

Free online counselling and emotional wellbeing support for young people

A new free online counselling and emotional wellbeing support service for young people in east and west Suffolk aged 11 – 18 has launched.

Called Kooth, young people will now be able to access online counselling through their mobile device, 365 days a year. Experienced counsellors will be available for virtual drop-in or bookable chat sessions from 12 noon until 10pm on weekdays and from 6pm until 10pm on weekends.

As well as online counselling, Kooth offers peer-to-peer support, moderated forums with other young members of the 'Kooth community' and a wide range of self-help materials.

Young people who use the service will be able to seek support or advice on any topic they wish, from coping with exam stress or bullying, seeking help for an eating disorder, dealing with suicidal thoughts or handling sexual abuse. There are no thresholds or barriers for young people on receiving help from Kooth.

Kooth has been commissioned by NHS Ipswich and East Suffolk and NHS West Suffolk clinical commissioning groups, as part of their ongoing commitment to improving local mental health services and the county's Children & Young People's Emotional Wellbeing Plan.

Compassionate Communities

Chris Draude and I are local residents and volunteers in this area for Compassionate Communities.

Compassionate Communities is a community project, managed and supervised by the Peninsula GP Practice (Alderton Health Centre).

A compassionate community includes families, neighbours, local organisations, spiritual support and other health and social care professionals such as doctors, nurses and integrated neighbourhood teams.

People within a compassionate community work together to support an individual, their family and carers to identify and respond to their needs, wishes and choices at the end of life.

Our Compassionate Community will support people experiencing life shortening illness to live as full a life as possible until they die by offering a Compassionate Companion. It will also enable people to discuss and make informed decisions about their own end of life, whenever that might happen and however far away that might be.

Chris and I have undertaken the volunteer training to become a Compassionate Companion to support individuals, their families and carers.

However as we are also trained dramatists/artists working in many capacities therapeutically in hospices, day centres & schools, as well as theatre forums, we are particularly interested in ways that we can assist people to have important discussions about end of life, and increase people's knowledge about the choices available to them.

We write now with a view to spreading information and gathering thoughts of readers of Villages Voices as to whether they may be interested in meeting as a group say once a month to discuss/explore creatively matters around this subject of living and dying well.

The group would be held in a central space similar in style to the 'Dying matters' and 'Planning Ahead' Cafes which are becoming more and more successful and popular.

I attach a leaflet but more information about the Compassionate Communities Project is available from the Project Manager

A Heavenly Gift

An evening of beautiful songs with acclaimed Classical Chart topper Christina Johnston

Classical Chart topper Christina Johnston
23rd November at St Augustine's Church,
Bucklesham Rd, Ipswich IP3 8TJ
7.30pm - doors open at 6.45pm

On Saturday 23rd November at 7.30pm, at St Augustine's Church, Ipswich, internationally acclaimed Classical Chart topper Christina Johnston, who has graced opera stages all over the world, will be bringing the sound of heaven to you, accompanied by the very talented pianist, Jade Hey.

On numerous occasions Christina has sung for various Heads of State, most notably regularly singing for the President of the Czech Republic, President of the People's Republic of China and various Presidents of EU Countries.

Jade is an accomplished pianist playing for events, rehearsals and concerts and is also a Musical Director. She teaches music and drama at Northgate High School as well as musical theatre and singing for the new full-time foundation course at the Children's Theatre Company. Recent accolades include Les Misérables and Seven Brides for Seven Brothers with the Children's Theatre Company and Grease with Northgate High School. This purpose of the evening is to raise vital funds for The Beehive charity, a home dedicated to the rehabilitation, education and loving support of vulnerable child-mothers and their babies in Nakuru, Kenya; set up by Jane and Alan Hutt from Rendlesham in Sept 2013. Jane and Alan saw a need that wasn't being met to help girls, sometimes as young as nine, finding themselves pregnant and having to face choices they should never have to face.

The Beehive receives no government funding and relies 100% on donations. All the money raised from the event will be used for the running of the two Beehive homes: rent, utility bills, food, wages for staff, medical & health care, education fees and living costs for the girls and babies.

Ticket price: £12 – no specified seat allocation
7.30pm - doors open at 6.45pm

Wine, Beer and Soft Drinks will be available for purchase in the interval

How The Beehive Transforms Lives

The Beehive is constantly expanding and we need all the funds we can muster in order to meet our growing needs and to transform the lives of these vulnerable girls. Here is one of their stories:

When Ruth came to us, aged only 16, she was 7 months pregnant. She had been raped.

Ruth is also profoundly deaf which had already made her life very difficult. Once she gave birth to her son, Ben, we started to look into her education. Miraculously, Ruth won a scholarship to a local boarding school and she now has a generous UK sponsor. She is top of all her classes and wants to become a doctor. Little Ben is thriving. This is a remarkable transformation and just one of the stories we could tell.

How The Beehive Works

The Beehive isn't an orphanage or an institution. It's a family home. Some girls stay with us until they are adults as they either have no family to return home to or it's dangerous or inappropriate for them to do so. Others are only short-term while their court case is heard or while they need protection.

FACT: Every girl who comes to the Beehive is supported through their pregnancy, birth and recovery and when the time is right, they resume their education or go on to vocational training.

How You Can Help

The Beehive is completely reliant on the generosity of its supporters. With two homes and a growing number of staff, The Beehive has significant overheads, so your donation enables us to meet all the day-to-day expenses.

Donate

We are very happy to receive one-off, regular monthly or quarterly payments. If you'd like to make a one-off or monthly payment, please visit The Beehive website at: www.beehiveafrica.org and hit the 'Donate' button.

If you'd like to set up a regular monthly or quarterly payment, please email us at partingseas2013@gmail.com

Sponsor

A personal sponsorship costs from £25 per month and helps to meet one girl's medical, educational and individual needs.

Education, books and uniform in Kenya aren't free. An educational sponsorship gives our girls the keys to a successful future. Sponsorship is tailored to each girl individually.

Fill a Blessings Jar

Our Blessings Jars are a lovely reminder of The Beehive and its work in your own home. Fill the jar with coins and return it to one of us or ring to arrange collection. Even just filled with 1p coins, you could raise up to £5 for The Beehive. If it's a mixture of 2p and 5p coins, it could be as much as £15! If you would like a Blessings Jar, please contact Pam Jenkins T: 01728 748367 E: pam@jenkins-net.co.uk

Rendlesham Climate Emergency Group

Sustainable living is something we hear about all the time at the moment, across all forms of media, from a variety of people - and for good reason! Who hasn't watched David Attenborough's Blue Planet 2 and felt some level of sadness at the damage humans are causing to this planet? Well I'm here to tell you a few simple steps you can incorporate into your life, to do your bit at living more sustainably for the planet!

1 Reusables

- water bottles, coffee cups, straws, bags, cutlery - you name it, the disposable option will have a reusable one. The majority of water bottles and coffee cups cannot and do not end up being recycled. They end up in landfills, as litter and on our beaches and in the ocean - contributing massively to the ongoing problem of plastic pollution. These are such an easy and simple swap, that is not only good for the planet, but good for your wallet too. Did you know, many places discount your coffee if you bring your own cup?!

2 Eat less meat and dairy

- animal agriculture is the biggest contributor to our global carbon footprint and therefore climate change. This doesn't have to be a scary change of becoming vegetarian or plant based overnight - but even aiming for one veggie meal a week can make a huge difference, especially if everyone did it! There are so many food alternatives out there now, it really couldn't be easier to try one in your weekly shop!

3 Conscious food shopping

- we all know to take our own bags to the supermarket, but have you ever thought about the products you're buying and what they come in? Consider opting for loose fruit and veg, or oil and peanut butter in a glass jar rather than a plastic one! You can even buy reusable mesh bags for your fruit and veg, or take in your own containers to bulk bins or refill stores! Additionally, food waste that ends up on landfill creates powerful greenhouse gasses that are harmful to our planet - try only buying food that you will use, or keeping those leftovers for tomorrow's lunch!

4 Travel responsibly

- whilst electric cars and giving up flights entirely aren't realistic for a lot of us, there are definitely simple swaps to improve our carbon footprint when it comes to travel. Opt for public transport where possible. Consider car/lift shares to work or school. Could you walk or cycle instead of drive to the corner shop, the gym or work? Can you offset your flight, or get the train/ferry?

5 Use less water

- we've been talking about this for years now but it's still a goodie! Some great examples include: showers over baths, turn the tap off when you're cleaning your teeth or shaving, only fill the kettle with what you need, wait for a full load of laundry before doing the washing and fixing any leaks!

6 Eco-energy

- energy saving light bulbs have been around for a long time now, but why stop there? Did you know you can swap to an eco friendly energy supplier, who only source their energy from renewable supplies? These are often cheaper and more user friendly too! Your energy is the same, just sourced responsibly - what's to lose?

7 Go paper-free

- Reduce waste, declutter and save some trees! Nearly all bills, statements and letters we need to view and process can be viewed online. This leads to easy and efficient viewing, processing and filing of all our life-admin. Contact your service providers and go paperless; less clutter for you and saving the trees at the same time! Trees play such a vital role in absorbing the carbon we emit into the atmosphere, and so this is such a simple way to reduce the paper we use and the trees we harvest to make it. This can easily be done online or over the phone - hassle free!

10 Simple Steps to Sustainable Living

8 Reduce, reuse!

- We hear a lot about recycling, however recycling can be very resource intensive, and often things aren't sorted correctly and so unfortunately don't end up being recycled. Before we recycle, there are a couple of other options to consider: can you reduce your consumption, or reuse items that would otherwise go to waste? We live in a society where we are constantly consuming new things, and this high turnover leads to a high level of waste. Can you reuse or repurpose things that would otherwise go to waste? Can you donate things you no longer need to a good cause? Can you buy second-hand? All of these options can reduce the demand for new items (when there are so many amazing things already in circulation), and in turn have a positive effect on our planet! Charity shops, upcycling and selling apps are all a great way to get involved with this.

9 Slow-fashion -

Our consumer obsessed society leads us to wanting new clothes for every occasion. However, while high street brands are cheap and convenient, the cost of this is in its unethical and unsustainable manufacturing processes. Consider buying less, and choosing to buy from high quality brands using ethical processes. These items will stand the test of time, giving you more for your money in the long run and being considerably better for the planet.

10 Influence and inspire!

One of the best things you can do to have a positive impact is to spread awareness. Campaign and sign petitions if you can, but also never underestimate the power of leading by example and talking to friends, family and colleagues and the positive changes you are making in your life - slightly too long of a sentence. You will inspire and encourage others to do the same, and the more people on board with these simple steps towards sustainable living, the larger the impact! We all vote with the choices we make every day - when we choose to make positive and sustainable choices, over time these things will become the norm.

Sometimes the fight on climate change and the effort to live more sustainably can seem overwhelming. However, I truly believe in grassroots change, and want to challenge this notion that you have to be living perfectly or it's not worth trying; if everyone made even a few changes, together this would have a huge impact. Every choice and change made makes a difference, and no matter how big or small it's always worth it - so I hope these examples have given you some ideas of areas you can make some simple changes in! If you're interested in greener-living and want to know more then there are a wealth of resources and information available online to sink your teeth into!

Woodbridge Probus

A fabulous talk at our October meeting from Bryan Knibbs chair of the Woodbridge Riverside Trust, about what surely must be the most exciting archaeological project in England; the building of a full sized replica of the Saxon ship excavated at Sutton Hoo. Brian reported on a ship built at Nydam in Denmark which relates somewhat to the Sutton Hoo replica and provides important construction details.

Over the next two years a team of expert volunteers will build the ship, using authentic methods, in the long shed at Tide Mill Way followed by sea trials on the Deben. There is a huge publicity project about this with interest from all the major TV channels.

At our next meeting on Monday 4th November at Woodbridge Golf Club will be Roy Dowding on Vehicle manufacturers of East Anglia. It has been home to one of Europe's largest vehicle plants, Innovators who built cars that have won Indianapolis and the 24 hour Le Mans and a lot of other facts that I am sure we have never heard of.

Rendlesham Revealed

The recent Anglo-Saxon Rendlesham talk given by Faye Minter of Suffolk County Council Archaeological Service brought around 100 people to Rendlesham Primary School to learn more about the Anglo-Saxon archaeological finds of the past few years. Faye gave an overview of the finds and their importance – along with the methods used to both locate the finds and to analyse the findings. Faye showed many slides of the finds, pointing out how they provided evidence for long-term settlement of a full range of trades people and workers as well as people of elite status in Rendlesham from 5th – 11th Centuries. Many of Anglo-Saxon Rendlesham's finds and features give rise to the conclusion that the site is very special and worthy of further investigation.

Faye's colleague, Alice Saunders, the Rendlesham Revealed Project Delivery Officer, gave an overview of the Lottery bid application that is currently in place. As part of the preparation of that bid, the field walking project that involved the Y5 class of Rendlesham Primary School, reported in a previous Rendlesham newsletter, took place. SCC will know if the bid is declared successful in January 2020, if it is the Primary School will be further involved and there will be the opportunity for members of the public to be involved too – watch this space!

If you missed the talk but would like to catch up on findings, you can access the Historic Environment Record, Suffolk County Council's comprehensive record of archaeology in Suffolk: <http://heritage.suffolk.gov.uk/>. The link to Rendlesham Revealed is on the front page of this site.

Sudoku Challenge

In a Sudoku you fill in the grid so that every row, every column, and every 3x3 box contains the digits 1 through 9. There is no math involved. The grid has numbers, but you don't have to perform any calculations. You just solve the Sudoku with reasoning and logic.

The Sudoku starts with a partially filled grid that you must solve following the rules above. If you complete the grid, you've solved the Sudoku. Depending on your skill and experience your solving time for a Sudoku will typically vary between 10 to 30 minutes.

REMEMBRANCE AND PEACE

"Since 1919, the nations of Europe have signed more than 200 treaties of peace. Each treaty, simply another scrap of paper, was broken more easily than consummated."

"From the year 1500 B.C. to A.D. 1860 more than 8,000 treaties of peace, meant to remain in force forever, were concluded. The average time they remained in force was two years."

—Ministers' Research

Service

The Armistice was signed on November 11, 1918, and since then for every year of war there have been two minutes of peace. We gladly remember the thousands of men and women who went off to war in the hope that their fighting and sacrifice would bring world peace. Yet today we are still living with the real threat of more wars and rumors of wars. Sadly, it's become painfully obvious that peace will never be attained through man's courageous and sacrificial efforts.

So you quickly might ask, "Is personal peace possible for man today?" The answer is YES! When you place your faith in Jesus Christ He gives you His Peace, John 14:27 and is able to give you the peace that passes all understanding, Phillipian's 4:7. Jesus also justifies us by our faith so that we have peace with God, Romans 5:1.

Man's treaties for peace may fail, but God's peace will never fail.

Rev. Frank Thompson, Faith Baptist Church, Bromeswell.
